Earth Day is April 22 and we, along with our dogs, can always make an impact, for even the smallest act can make a difference. "You cannot get through a single day without having an impact on the world around you. What you do makes a difference, and you have to decide what kind of a difference you want to make." Jane Goodall

Toller News

The Bad Kids' litter goes to their forever homes the first week in April. We will miss them but luckily, four of them are staying in state!

Here are three of the many new dog books just published. Be sure to check out your local library or RJ Julia.

Love Tails is a delightful picture book which will enthrall the pre-K set. Good Dogs on a Bad Day is a middle grade book about three daycare dogs that decide to be a little bad. Chaos ensues. Kids will love the funny antics and the illustrations. Be More Sausage: Lifelong Lessons from a Small but Mighty Dog is a humorous memoir about a Dachshund named Hercules.

Happy news about a canine thief that not only kept his special purple unicorn but scored a forever home too!
