A HUGE THANK YOU!

July was our best month ever in D Tails' ten year history! A huge thank you to all our wonderful customers and their fur kids. We appreciate your dedication to D Tails so much! Our Day School was full almost every day in July! Here are some Day School pictures from the past month.

Congratulations and Good Luck!

Congratulations to Aideen Siniscalco and her Golden Retriever pup, My Way Passion's Boulder Creek! Aideen and Boulder have been participating in Handling Class at D Tails and Boulder is making headway to become an AKC champion. On Sunday, July 26, Boulder showed at the Providence County Kennel Club. He was First in the 6-9 month puppy class, and then went on to take Reserve in his group. He was the youngest dog too! Great job, Boulder! You are making your family and D Tails very proud!

Thank you Aideen, for providing the pictures of Boulder!

Good luck to Channel this weekend! On Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Channel will be showing at the Adirondack Spa Circuit, at the Saratoga fairgrounds in New York. Channel is hoping for more major points towards his Grand Champion.

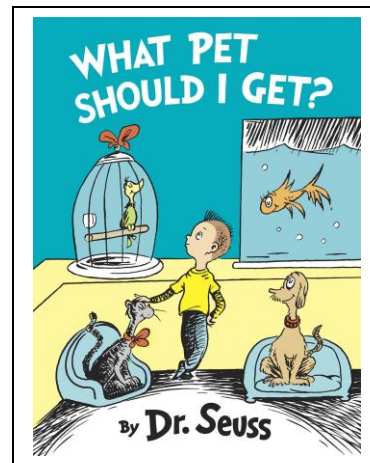

If you are interested in showing your dog, please come to D Tails' Handling class on Tuesday nights, 6:00-7:00 pm. Handling classes resume on Tuesday, September 1, 2015. Please check out our website calendar at www.dtails.biz for individual instructors.

Heads and Tails

If you get Discovery Family Channel, you can celebrate “Pawgust” with them. The entire month of August, they will be featuring family friendly pet movies and shows. A new show will feature animal trainer for Broadway, Bill Berloni, from Higganum, CT. It’s called From Wags to Riches, and premieres on Saturday, August 8 at 9:00 pm. If you have Comcast, the channel is 130.

NEW from the estate of Theodor Geisel (Dr. Seuss) What Pet Should I Get?

A complete Dr. Seuss manuscript was found and has now been published by Random House. 48 pages of pure Seuss, teaching children not only to read but to discover what family is all about.

ATTENTION! NOW HIRING:

D Tails is growing and we need another staff member to care for our fur friends. Spread the word if you know anyone who would like to work 12-20 hours per week with our wagging customers! Call Donna for more information.

YouTube Videos for your Entertainment

Here’s a Subaru commercial that’s especially heartwarming:
